

2018 Year in Review

MEMBERSHIP AND IMPACT

120 MEMBERS+

Member types: private & community foundations, donor advised funds, giving circles, charitable organizations, corporations

INVESTMENTS

$9 Billion +

in foundation assets stewarded by members throughout the state of Maryland

NEW MEMBERS

M & M Curtin Fund; DeVito Family Trust; Fund for Educational Excellence; Hinkey-Benson Family Charitable Gift Fund; Jean & Sidney Silber Foundation; South Baltimore Gateway Partnership; Thalmeimer- Eurich Charitable Fund; Visit Baltimore Education & Training Foundation

ABAG AFFINITY GROUPS

AGING ART BASIC HUMAN NEEDS
COMMUNITY INVESTMENT
EDUCATION GREEN HEALTH WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

LEARNING AND ENGAGEMENT

105

programs, webinars and other learning opportunities for members

317

unique individual members engaged in programming

67%

member organizations participated in programming

14

grantseeker workshops and programs

ABAG MEMBER AND COMMUNITY IMPACT

unique individual members attended Equity Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) programming 68

Hosted 117 members and 66 guests for ABAG's 35th Annual Meeting: Community and Philanthropy Investing Together. Keynote Speaker, was Rev. Dr. Heber M. Brown, III.

members, representing community and independent foundations took a public stance on issues affecting philanthropy and the community via sign-on letters, public testimony and meetings with public officials. 21

Hosted Expanding Our Vision, the first Aging Partner Conference in Baltimore with over 100 participants networking and sharing best practices, industry and policy trends.

individual members attended Race Matters: Responsive Philanthropy in Black Communities Training 24

Hosted more than 125 guests for The Colored Waiting Room: Empowering the Original and the New Civil Rights - a book discussion commemorating the 50th Anniversary of the death of civil rights icon Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., featuring author Kevin Shird and civil rights activist, Nelson Malden.

ABAG PUBLICATIONS

- 2018 Profile of Educational Giving Education Funders Affinity Group
- Advancing Careers in Retail Baltimore: Labor Market Analysis Baltimore Workforce Funders Collaborative
- Collectively We Rise: The Business Case for Economic Inclusion in Baltimore Baltimore Integration Partnership

Association President, Celeste Amato, named 2018 Influential Marylander

Association President, Celeste Amato, Published August 2018, "How to Attract Talented People of Color to Your Nonprofit"

INITIATIVES AND COLLABORATIONS

The Association host 4 initiatives that engage funders and outside partners in collaborative funding and action.

Baltimore Integration Partnership

Baltimore Workforce Funders Collaborative

Maryland Environmental Health Network

School Centered Neighborhood Investment Initiative